

Abstracts

VALÁŠEK, M. The Education – the Gift and the Responsibility

A teacher should be a professional as well as an inspirational moral personality. The training of new teachers should promote these qualities in order to prepare them successfully for practice. It is crucial to ask about the meaning of pedagogical profession, it is important to listen the voice of conscience as well as to be sensitive to the initiative of other people. We should call a true a true and a lie a lie.

Key words: the teacher, the personality, the responsibility, the true, autoreflexion.

Mgr. Marek Valášek, Ph.D., Department of Music, Faculty of Education, Charles University, Prague, e-mail: valasek.marek@seznam.cz

KOPČÁKOVÁ, S. Music and word in the context of receptive activities

A poetry and music were always standing side by side in the context of the music perception activities. They are often compared one to another. A recognition of some analogies can help us to integrate them in the arts education.

Key words: language of music and poetic diction, emotional and expressional aspect of music, aesthetic experience.

PaedDr. Slávka Kopčáková, Ph.D., Faculty of Arts, University of Presov in Presov, e-mail: slavkakopcak@centrum.sk

HUDÁKOVÁ, J. Pedagogical faculty students remarks to the problem of children's choir singing

Choir singing evidently influences mental development from the therapeutic point of view. It also deepens musical and aesthetic feeling, aesthetic experience and spirituality. Children's choir singing in Slovakia is not at ideal conditions. The solution of these problems we can see in the pedagogical faculty students preparation. To find out the incoming musical education teachers' interest in choir singing we realized enquiry in the form of questionnaire in Slovakia and Czech republic.

Key words: musical feeling, aesthetic experience, children's choir singing.

PaedDr. Jana Hudáková, Ph.D., Faculty of Arts, University of Presov in Presov, e-mail: jhudakova@unipo.sk

PECHÁČEK, S. Jan Vičar's children choirs

After a brief biography of prof. PhDr. Jan Vičar, CSc., the article brings the survey of his compositions for children choirs. The authors of lyrics, kind of instrumental accompaniment, first performance and edition are mentioned in every opuses including the level of their difficulty.

Key words: Jan Vičar, choral singing, children choir, children songs.

Doc. PhDr. Stanislav Pecháček, Ph.D., Music Department, Faculty of Education, Charles University, Prague, e-mail: pechacek.stanislav@seznam.cz

J. Pechová